

Goodwood Calls for Volunteers

19th July 2016

Goodwood is looking for enthusiastic, reliable and dynamic volunteers for a variety of positions at the Goodwood Revival from 9-11 September this year.

Volunteers are an integral part of this world-class motorsport event and are free to enjoy all of the action outside of shift times.

Parking and lunch is provided, while those living over 30 miles from Goodwood will be offered camping facilities. Applicants must be over 18 and anyone interested should email event.staffing@goodwood.com.

Emails should include reasons you wish to volunteer, your availability with a full, clean UK driving licence.

Previous volunteers have said;

“What a fantastic time we both had volunteering at Goodwood. It was such a positive & great experience & the venue and cars were the icing on the cake.”

“I am happy to say that like so many others I had a great time meeting so many like petrolheads at the temple of motorsport that is Goodwood!”

“It was an absolute pleasure to be part of your team of volunteers.”

“It was great to work at Goodwood for the first time and I thoroughly enjoyed the weekend. I felt well looked after and supported by your team and staff on the day.”

“It was a pleasure to have the opportunity to be part of such a marvelous event, great fun as always.”

“I had a wonderful weekend and enjoyed it all very much.”
