

CHRIS HARRIS AND GARY PEARSON TO COMPETE IN THE RAC TT CELEBRATION

2nd September 2016

Top Gear presenter, journalist, YouTube star and racing driver Chris Harris will be driving a Jaguar E-type semi-lightweight in the RAC TT Celebration at next week's Goodwood Revival, sharing with one of the Revival's most decorated drivers Gary Pearson.

Harris will be competing once again for the title he so nearly won in the Lister Jaguar Coupe in 2013, having also competed in the 74th Goodwood Member's Meeting Fordwater Trophy last year in Howard Donald's beautiful Porsche 356 and JD Classics Rover SD1.

He'll be racing in what should be a closely fought battle for the TT Trophy alongside the likes of "Mr Le Mans" Tom Kristensen, Goodwood Ambassador and BTCC Champion Andrew Jordan and BTCC Champion Gordon Shedden.

(Ends)

Editor's Notes

The live stream of the Goodwood Revival will cover all the action across the weekend on www.goodwood.com/grr. TV highlights of the Goodwood Revival will follow.

We work closely with the local council to make relevant updates and amendments to the Goodwood Revival in order to secure our annual event licence. In accordance with the council's requirements, to keep visitor numbers at comfortable levels, from this year on, all visitors to the Over The Road area will need to show a Revival ticket.
