

Goodwood Gets in the Groove with Bowers and Wilkins

9 September 2016

Revival-goers are getting down and grooving in the Bowers & Wilkins listening booths on the Richmond Lawn. The firm, which is globally renowned for its audio equipment, is teaming up with Goodwood this year to produce an EP – appropriately on 12in vinyl, with all proceeds going to the charity, D-Day Revisited, which remembers those brave souls who lost their lives in the Normandy Landings and supports veterans of the operation. It contains four tracks from '60s legends The Spencer Davis Group, The Supremes, Dusty Springfield and The Who. It costs just £5 and is available for pre-order throughout the weekend.
