

How to watch the Goodwood Revival this weekend

- Don't miss out on the action
- Goodwood Revival takes place this weekend, Friday 6 – Sunday 8 September

The Goodwood Revival – the world's greatest historic motor race meeting, and the only sporting event of its kind to be staged entirely in a period theme – takes place this weekend, Friday 6 – Sunday 8 September.

This year, the Revival will become the first historic motor racing event to run all its races on sustainable fuel, in what is a landmark moment for both Goodwood and motorsport. The event will celebrate the legendary John Surtees, welcome over 100 beach buggies for the track opening parade, mark the 80th anniversary of D-Day with a mighty gathering of military machines and see the official opening of the Tyrrell Shed.

The Revival continues to champion the strikingly relevant ethos of Revive & Thrive with heritage skill-focused workshops and demonstrations, sharing ways to reduce, reuse, repair, restore and recycle with TV's Dominic Chinea and Micaela Sharp. The new Revive & Thrive fashion hub will bring together the Best Dressed competition, fashion shows and a host of very special guests including model David Gandy, Great British Sewing Bee judge Patrick Grant, fashion designer Zandra Rhodes, vintage style icon Dita von Teese and style activist Dandy Wellington.

About the Goodwood Revival

The Goodwood Revival is the world's greatest historic motor race meeting, and the only sporting event of its kind to be staged entirely in a period theme. More than just an unrivalled weekend of historic racing, it is an immersive celebration of vintage lifestyle, championing exceptional craftsmanship and the enduringly fabulous stories told by second-hand treasures. 'Revive & Thrive' is the thoroughly modern message woven through the Revival landscape; a clever stitch with which the old is made new again, it runs through every carefully restored classic car, each beautifully preserved piece of clothing as it is passed from one generation to the next.

It is, proudly, the world's biggest and most glamorous second-hand event.
