Goodwood Revival to celebrate Alfa Romeo

- Alfa Romeo to be celebrated at the Goodwood Revival
- 2025 marks a number of significant anniversaries for the Italian manufacturer
- On-track demonstration to feature a collection of cars from Alfa Romeo's competitive racing history
- Goodwood Revival takes place Friday 12 - Sunday 14 September
- Early bird tickets are available at goodwood.com

The Goodwood Revival will bring together a collection of cars from Alfa Romeo's competitive history to celebrate the centenary of the marque's victory in the inaugural Manufacturer's World Championship.

Taking place across the weekend, the demonstration will feature Grand Prix cars, sports cars, touring cars and prototypes, including the machines that became renowned for competing at races including the 24 Hours of Le Mans, Mille Miglia and Targa Florio. Visitors can expect to see the likes of the first Formula 1 Championship-winning car, the 158 'Alfetta', Tipo 308C, TZ2 and Tipo 33 prototypes - each telling a story of bold innovation and mechanical artistry from 1925 through to1975.

The celebration will reflect on Alfa Romeo's domination of motorsport - including celebrating the 50th anniversary of the marque's victory at the 1975 World Sportscar Championship. The Revival will remember the legendary drivers who piloted these machines, including four-time Grand Prix winner Antonio Ascari; five-time World Champion Juan Manuel Fangio; five-time Grand Prix winner and first World Drivers' Champion Giuseppe Farina; and Alfa Romeo's most famous and celebrated pre-war driver Tazio Nuvolari.

Earlier in the year, the Festival of Speed will also recognise the centenary of the Manufacturers' World Championship. The Prologue class, which forms part of the F1 75 celebrations at the event, will showcase the cars that predate the World Championship, with examples from Alfa Romeo.

The Alfa Romeo celebration at the Goodwood Revival joins the previously announced VW Type 2 Split Screen track opening parade and all-sustainable fuel race list.

About the Goodwood Revival
The Goodwood Revival is the world's greatest historic motor race meeting, and the only sporting event of its kind to be staged entirely in a period theme. More than just an unrivalled weekend of historic racing, it is an immersive celebration of vintage lifestyle, championing exceptional craftsmanship and the enduringly fabulous stories told by second-hand treasures. 'Revive & Thrive' is the thoroughly modern message woven through the Revival landscape; a clever stitch with which the old is made new again, it runs through every carefully restored classic car, each beautifully preserved piece of clothing as it is passed from one generation to the next.

It is, proudly, the world's biggest and most glamorous second-hand event.
