Creating the world's most immersive celebration of vintage design and second-hand style, Goodwood Revival is delighted to welcome Dame Zandra Rhodes, Jamie-Lee O'Donnell and Golda Rosheuvel to its 2026 programme.

Celebrating the most exciting elements of classic motorsport and mid-century style, set entirely in period theme, Goodwood Revival is the ultimate destination for vintage enthusiasts. Dame Zandra Rhodes will share insights from over six decades in fashion on Sunday 20 September, while Jamie-Lee will appear in conversation with host Dandy Wellington on the Revival Style Stage on Saturday 19 September, discussing the power of representation, the craft of evoking another era on screen, and her own instinct for second-hand style.

Elsewhere on the Revival Style programme, Golda Rosheuvel will discuss working in period costume and how she uses fashion as a powerful expression of purpose. Amber Butchart and the curator of the V&A's Schiaparelli exhibition will delve into the Italian designer's fascinating life, and Bridgerton costume designer Henry Wilkinson will reveal the story behind Audrey Hepburn's long collaboration with Givenchy, via his own collection of her gowns. Author Keith Lodwick will explore the iconic Cosprop film costume collection, while a wider programme of talks brings together voices from across fashion, film and theatre. Designer Giles Deacon is joined by a panel of experts to explore their diverse uses of vintage fashion, and history's sharpest gossip, Katie Kennedy, and actor Maddie Close – who plays Jane in The Other Bennet Sister – will fashion, storytelling and the irresistible joy of bringing history to life.

Finally, the visitors become the stars of the show with the Best Dressed Competition presented by Ancestry. With scouts and judges including David Harewood, Charlotte Dellal, Ari Seth Cohen (author of Advanced Style), Adele Mildred, New York's youngest vintage aficionado Gilbert Wing and Herbie Mensah, the parade brings together the most extraordinary vintage stories from across the event.

Next door, at The Workshop, television presenter Dominic Chinea leads a timetable of free classes and demonstrations in the heritage crafts that underpin truly circular consumption.

On the track, Revival will mark 80 years of Vespa with a parade of more than 300 pre-1967 Vespas, Lambrettas, Ducatis and more, showcasing the enduring influence of Italian design. Another Italian icon, Maserati, celebrates its centenary with over 50 pre-1966 cars racing across the weekend – all with sustainable fuel – featuring drivers such as Jenson Button, Jacques Villeneuve, Dario Franchitti and Scott Dixon.

The Italian theme continues across the wider event, inspiring fashion, new immersive experiences and a host of eateries, capturing the spirit of La Dolce Vita and mid-century glamour in full.

Additional celebrity appearances will be announced in the lead-up to the event.

About the Goodwood Revival

The Goodwood Revival is the world's greatest historic motor race meeting, and the only sporting event of its kind to be staged entirely in a period theme. More than just an unrivalled weekend of historic racing, it is an immersive celebration of vintage lifestyle, championing exceptional craftsmanship and the enduringly fabulous stories told by second-hand treasures. 'Revive & Thrive' is the thoroughly modern message woven through the Revival landscape; a clever stitch with which the old is made new again, it runs through every carefully restored classic car, each beautifully preserved piece of clothing as it is passed from one generation to the next. It is, proudly, the world's biggest and most glamorous second-hand event.
