

Pete Tong sold out for Three Friday Nights 2017

With a month to go until his performance at Goodwood Racecourse on Friday 9 June, tickets to see world-renowned DJ Pete Tong have now sold out. Tickets for the remaining Three Friday Nights fixtures – Tinie Tempah and DJ Charlesy on 2 June and Sigma on 16 June – are also selling very quickly and are expected to sell out before the events.

Goodwood's season got off to a great start with Opening Saturday on 6 May, with a crowd of 10,099 in attendance. The large attendances are expected to continue as the Three Friday Nights have risen to become some of the most popular events in the South, with this year's stellar line-up attracting significant interest.

Limited tickets still remain to enjoy Tinie Tempah and his tour DJ, Charlesy, who will spin the decks after racing on Friday 2 June. Tinie Tempah is the UK's most decorated rap artist, with seven UK number one singles to his name and a Platinum-selling album; 'Disc-Overy.' The duo is expected to bring a cocktail of new sounds and anthemic tracks such as 'Pass Out' and 'Written in the Stars' to the South Downs.

The sell-out crowd on Friday 9 June will be treated to a set from a man who has helped shape dance music for the past two decades. Pete Tong will undoubtedly provide a masterclass in mixing, featuring some of the greatest electronic tracks ever made.

Sigma, performing their DJ set on the final of the Three Friday Nights on 16 June, will bring a crescendo of dynamic musicality, cutting edge production and a spectacle of light and sound. Best known for their number one singles 'Nobody to Love' and 'Changing,' as well as recent hit 'Find Me,' Sigma have quickly risen to their position as one of the leading dance pop acts in the world. The duo from Greater London has also sold out live shows in the USA and Australia, as well as playing Glastonbury and Reading Festival. Tickets for the fixture are selling fast.

Each of the Three Friday Nights will feature a six-race card of quality horseracing in the evening, before the sun goes down and lasers light up the dance floor in the Parade Ring. Now in its seventh year, Goodwood's Three Friday Nights have been enjoyed by thousands, who have flocked to see globally-acclaimed artists in the intimacy of this unique setting.

Adult tickets start from £35, with junior (13-17 years old) tickets from £26.25. Gates for all three fixtures open at 4.30pm and the music performance runs from 9.30pm to 11pm. For tickets, hospitality and more information, please visit www.Goodwood.com or call 01243 755055.

ENDS

For press information, please contact: Sam Hanson, Racecourse PR Executive

E: sam.hanson@goodwood.com

T: 01243 755 000

M: 07790 921 688

Goodwood Racecourse on social media:

Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/goodwoodracecourse>

Twitter: @Goodwood_Races

Instagram: @goodwood_races

