

Julian Majzub claims last gasp win in S.F Edge Trophy

7 April, 2019

Julian Majzub claimed a last gasp win in the S.F. Edge Trophy race for Edwardian machinery following a robust display of driving. Majzub led most of the 15min encounter in his remarkably original Sunbeam which placed fourth in the 1916 running of the Indianapolis 500. His nearest challenger was sometime leader Tony Lees in his 1913 Vauxhall Viper Special, the warring duo virtually deadheaded across the line. Third place went to Ben Collings on his debut in the remarkable 1909 'Blitzen Benz' from the Auto & Technik Museum.
