

Griffiths heads Lotus 1-2-3 in Madgwick Cup

For immediate release: Saturday 9 2017

Miles Griffiths drove a millimetre perfect race to win a thrilling Madgwick Cup on Saturday morning. The front row starter blasted his Lotus Eleven into the lead from the front row and was never headed over the next 20 minutes. Behind him, Dion Kremer had an eventful outing in his Lotus 17, running second during the early running only to have an off-road excursion which bundled him down the order. He clawed his way back to battle with Ian Dalglish's similar car for the runner-up spot, and survived a moment at Woodcote late in the race to claim second barely half a car's length ahead of his pursuer.
